IMPACT INVESTING Webinar
May 23, 2017 at 18:30 – 20:00
(SGT/HKT)

Following the success of last year’s webinar, you have the opportunity to interact with Credit Suisse Asia Pacific’s leading impact investing subject matter expert: hear firsthand examples of the social and environmental impact being made and why this type of investment also makes great business sense. You will participate in a deal case study during this session to experience better how impact investing works.

Speaker Profile

Joost Bilkes, Vice President, Head of Responsible and Impact Investing Asia Pacific (APAC)

Joost is responsible for the bank’s Impact Advisory Services as well as business development for impact investment initiatives in Asia. The Impact Advisory Services are offered both to asset managers as well as (ultra) high net worth individuals. It encompasses a variety of impact investment related activities including development of impact investment policies, “on the ground” deal due diligence and subsequent implementation of the “route to impact” for selected investee companies.

Prior to his current role, Joost provided wealth management products and services to high net-worth clients within the greater China market area as a relationship manager. Previously, he was the regional and product head of Mutual Funds and Exchange-Traded-Funds for Credit Suisse, APAC.

Before joining Credit Suisse Group 11yrs ago, Joost worked as an analyst and project manager for UBS Investment Bank and Westpac Corporate Centre in Sydney, Australia and ABN AMRO Private Bank in the United Kingdom. Joost holds an MBA from the Vrije University of Amsterdam and successfully completed a post-graduate program at the University of Stellenbosch.
